HOPE ON A HILL

At a Glance

A Place of Rest, Refuge, and Renewal for Missionaries

Hope on a Hill is creating a place in France where missionaries can come to rest, receive counseling, and heal before returning to the work God has called them to.

WHY IT EXISTS

Six years ago, during one of the hardest seasons of her life, Marcy Pusey found healing through Restored & Renewed Ministry in a small French village.

Today, she is creating Hope on a Hill so other missionaries can experience that same refuge when life and ministry become overwhelming.

Missionaries spend their lives caring for others. Hope on a Hill exists so they also have a place where they can be cared for.

THE VISION

- Overflow housing for Restored & Renewed Ministry
- A peaceful place for counseling, prayer, and rest
- Retreat space for missionaries and ministry leaders
- Sustainable operation through Airbnb between ministry stays

The goal is to strengthen those who are serving around the world.

THE OPPORTUNITY

CAMPAIGN GOAL

$200,000

This will fund all of the initial setup

Marcy will personally steward, maintain, and manage the property while dedicating it to ministry use in partnership with Restored & Renewed Ministry.
